

HIROSHIMA / NAGASAKI

August 6-9, 1945

68 years ago, on August 6, 1945,

the United States dropped the first atomic bomb on Hiroshima, Japan.

Three days later, a second bomb was dropped on Nagasaki.

PANDEMONIUM PRESS

Presents

a Poetry Reading to mark this tragic event & to support Peace.

Tuesday, August 6, 2013

7-10 pm

Casa Latina

1805 San Pablo Avenue

(near corner with Delaware)

Berkeley, CA. 94702

RAFAEL JESÚS GONZÁLEZ

poet and activist, was born in bicultural, bilingual El Paso Texas/Juárez, Chihuahua. He is professor emeritus at Laney College, where he founded the Mexican & Latin American Studies Dept.

SHARON COLEMAN

is a fifth-generation northern Californian. She writes for Poetry Flash, teaches at Berkeley City College and co-curates the reading series Lyrics & Dirges. Her chapbook Half Circle comes out in August 2013.

JOYCE E. YOUNG

lives and writes in Berkeley. She has taught with California Poets in the Schools, The Museum of Children's Art, and The Oakland Museum of California. She is founder of the Write in Peace workshops.

KIRK LUMPKIN

is a poet, performer, lyricist, environmentalist, and cultural worker. He works as the Special Events & Promotions Coordinator of the Ecology Center's Farmers' Markets.

Open Mic

10 spots available

Please limit yourself to one poem on the theme of peace.

Books & Book Signing

